

RACING DIRECTORS ALREADY BUSY ON PLANS TO OPEN

Belmont Calls Meeting to Discuss Appellate Court's Betting Decision.

WON'T RUSH SPORT ON.

Many Things to Be Considered Before the Horses Will Run Again.

August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, which controls racing on Eastern tracks, called today a special meeting of the directors to consider whether racing should be revived in New York State. The meeting will be held as soon as possible, Mr. Belmont said, possibly within the next two or three days.

Recently the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court held that oral bets were not illegal. Mr. Belmont said today that the directors would be asked to determine whether steps should be taken, in view of this decision, toward the reopening of New York's idle tracks.

"We are not going to be precipitate in the matter," he said, "as there are a number of things to be considered, but the question is to be discussed."

August Belmont would not say whether or not he will accept an appointment as a State Commissioner of racing in the event of the sport being revived.

"I will not discuss the situation in any way at the present time," said Mr. Belmont to an Evening World reporter at his home at 44 East Thirty-fourth street today. "The thing is too big to be dealt with off-hand and informally. Later on I may have something to say. I probably shall, for it is a matter of interest to every one."

"I have heard nothing of the report that I am to be named as one of the members of a new State Racing Commission and will not say under the circumstances whether I would accept such an appointment or not."

"Would you enforce strictly the anti-betting ordinances if you were to occupy a place on the Commission?" was asked. "I cannot say what I would do. I'll see something about this thing as early as I can say nothing at all."

"Have you considered the matter at all, Mr. Belmont?"

"I don't care to answer that question. I never believe in discussing a situation until I am conversant with it in every detail."

When he was a member of the State Racing Commission years ago Mr. Belmont, although a staunch Democrat, occupied his position through successive Republican administrations. Two years ago he resigned his office. H. K. Knapp was appointed in his place. Knapp has carried his term of office and it is entirely probable that Mr. Belmont will be asked to take his place. Incidentally Knapp is a Republican.

In fact all the present members of the commission are of that political faith. James W. Wadsworth of Genesee, N. Y., is a member, and John Sanford of Amsterdam, who died recently, was the other member of the commission. This fact is a strong factor in the pressure that is being brought to bear on the Governor to change the personnel of the commission.

The State Racing Commission has been more or less of a joke in this State. Unlike the Racing Commission of Kentucky, which actually supervises racing in all its branches in that State, the commission in the Empire State did little save grant licenses to tracks to hold racing meetings. The actual government and supervision of racing was left to the stewards of the Jockey Club.

For years the only real thing that the State Racing Commission ever did was to send in yearly reports to the Legislature, telling the amount of money the State treasury received under the tax of 5 per cent on all gross receipts of the racing tracks, make a few suggestions regarding the establishment of breeding bureaus and to deny the application of the Empire City track for a license.

The Racing Commission refused to grant a license to the hippodrome track on the Westchester course was inadequate—an excuse that made every racing man of the turf laugh. Mr. Butler, the moving spirit of the Empire City track, considered this excuse so frivolous—not to say ridiculous—that he took the case to the courts. The courts decided in favor of the Empire City Racing Association and forced the commission to grant the track a license.

PUGILISTIC NOTES.

James Clabey, the crack Milwaukee middleweight, has been matched to meet Freddie Hildebrand in ten rounds at the Hammond (Ind.) A. C. Club, Monday night. Clabey is expected to give Hildebrand a good thrashing.

Joe and Eddie McMahon have postponed the boxing match they had arranged for at the Garden A. C. to Friday night. The fight was to be between McMahon and a local fighter named Charlie White of Chicago. McMahon is expected to give White a good thrashing.

The boxing game is surely in a flourishing condition over in Paris. The fight between Willie Lewis and Arthur Hogue was held at the Casino de la Ville, Paris, on Saturday night. Lewis won by a knockout in the eighth round.

Billy Gilson, manager of the Garden A. C. and a well-known boxing man, is expected to be out of the city on Friday night. He is expected to arrive in town after an absence of several days.

Jimmy Tate, matchmaker of the New Polo A. C., has secured Freddie Hildebrand to meet Mickey Davis in ten rounds on Friday night. Tate is expected to give Hildebrand a good thrashing.

MISSING WOMAN BACK AFTER STRANGE FLIGHT FROM SANITARIUM

Wife of Former Hobart College President Refuses to Tell Where She Hid.

Miss Langdon C. Stewart, who vanished from Dr. Leroy's sanitarium at No. 25 West Fifth street last night, and for whom a vain all-night search was made, returned alone to the sanitarium today.

As on her previous disappearance two weeks ago, the wife of the former president of Hobart College refused to tell or could not tell just where she had been. And, as on the previous occasion, she came back voluntarily and none the worse for her experience. Mrs. Stewart, who is a native of New York, is the daughter of a prominent family.

They went to live at the Manhattan Hotel, and Dr. Leroy put a trained nurse, Mrs. Hudson, in charge of Mrs. Stewart. She, as the two were leaving, told Mrs. Stewart that she was to be kept in the sanitarium until she was cured.

There was an all-night search. In the morning Mrs. Stewart returned to the hotel and said she had spent the night in Central Park. She was not able to tell much more and seemed none the worse for her adventure.

Mrs. Hudson was away from the sanitarium last evening and a maid was in charge. Mrs. Stewart alone for a few minutes, returning to the room, learned that she had left the hotel. The maid ran to the Manhattan Hotel and asked if the patient had appeared there. The hotel managers at once notified the police, because Mrs. Stewart is subject to intense periods of melancholic depression anxiety is felt regarding her.

Bulgaria Agrees to Mediation. SOFIA, Bulgaria, Feb. 24.—Bulgaria today accepted the offer of mediation made by the representatives of the powers in the boundary dispute between Bulgaria and Rumania. The Sofia Government agrees to leave the solution of the questions in dispute to the decision of the six great powers provided Rumania also agrees.

USE POSLAM TO DISPOSE OF PIMPLES

Pimples and disfiguring skin affections are not to be endured one day longer than one chooses to endure them.

Poslam surely drives such troubles away. It is inexpensive, obtainable everywhere; the modern remedy, handy, effective, through which thousands formerly affected for years have restored their skin to natural health, color and texture.

All skin diseases, including eczema, acne, tetter, piles, salt rheum, skin scales, barber's and all other forms of itch, are relieved and cured by Poslam, itching being stopped at once.

The daily use of POSLAM SOAP, an absolutely pure soap medicated with Poslam, is of inestimable benefit to all whose skin is subject to eruptions, troubles. Soothes tender skin; never irritates; ideal for baby's bath; best shampoo for dandruff.

All druggists sell Poslam (price, 50 cents) and Poslam Soap (price 25 cents). For free samples, write to the Emergency Laboratories, 24 West 29th Street, New York City.

TWO-DAYS' BRIDE SAYS BRIDEGROOM FLITTED WITH $600

Gussie Neuman, Deserted in Pittsburgh, Isn't Really Sure of Name.

Mrs. Kornil Neuman, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Gustav Bochen, returned to her father's home, No. 123 East Twenty-second street, from Pittsburgh, where her husband, to whom she was married on Thursday afternoon, in this city, deserted her Saturday morning, she says. When the husband departed, he took with him $500 in cash and a fine necklace and chain, which his bride says she entrusted to him for safekeeping.

The deserted bride has not even a name in return for the affection, trust, money and jewelry she gave her husband. Her investigation today established, she says, that his real name is Charles Nametty and that he adopted the name of Kornil Neuman for some reason which may come to light later.

Mrs. Neuman was Gussie Bochen, a governess in a home in Madison avenue, when she met the man calling himself Neuman, several months ago at a ball. Neuman wore diamonds and said he was a mechanical engineer. The couple were married by an Alibi man at the City Hall and left for Pittsburgh Thursday night.

"My husband," said Mrs. Neuman today, "spent all his money on the railroad and sleeping car tickets. He got one berth for me and another for himself. When we got to Pittsburgh, Friday morning, he took me to a nice hotel. There he told me he had to get a check for $100 cashed and suggested that I give him my savings, amounting to $100, and the necklace my father had given me as a wedding present. I gave them to him without question."

"He left me Friday afternoon saying he was going to meet friends who would get him a job with the Westinghouse Electric Company. I didn't see him again until Saturday morning when he returned to the hotel. He admitted he had been drinking all night with friends, but he had got his job. I went down to breakfast and he said he would be back in a few minutes. He had packed his trunk and suit case and taken them away. I waited for him until yesterday, when I reported his disappearance to the police. They advised me to come home and I left Pittsburgh last night. Since getting back I have found out that at the address he gave me as his home, No. 25 East Seventy-ninth street, they do not know a Kornil Neuman, but Charles Nametty, who boarded there until last Thursday, when he left, saying he was going to Pittsburgh. I believe, really, the man I married."

Drugged, Skull Broken, Dies Mysteriously. A body of the white light district that began Feb. 18 and continued until the death of John Jarrett, in the prison ward of Bellevue Hospital, a fractured skull, which may have been caused by a beating incident to robbery, was the cause of death, but the police have not found tangible evidence.

Jarrett's companion on the night of Feb. 18 was Henry Sutherland, a half-breed, No. 12 West End avenue, who was taken to the West Sixty-sixth street station on a charge of intoxication. Dr. Booth of Poly Clinic Hospital examined him and ordered removal to Bellevue. There were found traces of drugging, in addition to a fracture of the skull. No money was in Jarrett's pockets, although substantial evidence was found that he had been robbed.

Jerome D. Travers Will Be the Only Golfer Placed at Scratch in the Metropolitan Handicap List.

Jerome D. Travers of Upper Montclair, holder of both the national and metropolitan amateur golf championships, having won the national in 1907 and 1908, as well as last fall and also having captured the metropolitan in 1906 and 1907, as well as in 1911 and 1912, will be the only man in the metropolitan district placed at scratch this year. In 1912, when the handicap list was announced, Walter J. Travis of Garden City, Fred Herreshoff of Westbrook, Oswald Kirby of Knalwood and Albert Seckel of Princeton were placed at scratch with Travers. As Seckel has gone back to Chicago, he will have no rating.

Now that all the "sport" notes have been sent by the editorial staff following the checking of the marks in the metropolitan examination, it has been found that four good stories have been sent to Cornell teams through deficiencies in university marks. Nisbet, who has been a dependable player on the baseball team for the past two years, was not rated for the football team last fall, and the same fate, it is believed, will befall him in the basketball team for next year, and who is the best net player on the squad, has been placed on probation, and a like fate has befallen Bryant, the best player of last year's basketball team, who was expected to be one of the variety men in this year's team.
